'Management Information for Marketing Decisions 2001-2002' is a specifically tailored coursebook for students undertaking the Management Information for Marketing Decisions module of the CIM Advanced Certificate. Butterworth-Heinemann have worked closely with the Education Division of the CIM to ensure that all aspects of the text are up-to-date and correspond to the CIM's requirements, making this title the definitive companion to this year's course. Its comprehensive content and user-friendly text layout are designed to facilitate learning, with questions, activities, definitions and study tips to support the theory, while the structured study units link the information directly to the CIM syllabus. The new edition of this text contains: · a firmly international perspective · new material to cover e-marketing issues, the basic concepts of management information systems, emerging accounting techniques and the application of market research · a completely revised Continuous Assessment unit · new and up to date examples and case studies to illustrate the theory · additional text references and website references · preparatory aids for the final exam, including the most recent exam papers, examiners' marking schemes and specimen answers Comprehensive yet uniquely accessible, it provides essential support for anyone undertaking a CIM course.

This book offers you a short cut for the marketing exams. It contains frequently asked 580 questions, out of a question bank of over 1600 questions. I have reviewed whole syllabuses of many marketing courses in Diploma to Undergraduate level and have included questions on fundamental concepts and terms that are tested in a marketing exam. I have purposely avoided questions that are easy and not tested frequently to bring down the load on students to study on marketing MCQs. Hence, this book will take away a big burden on students in reading the whole syllabus, sifting, selecting important questions from big question banks and memorizing all of them. In addition to helping students in answering MCQs, this book provides a revision of the whole syllabus offered in a marketing course. Therefore, the knowledge gathered by answering MCQs in this book will surely help the student to write short and essay type answers as well with confidence. Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs) are used as an objective assessment in almost all the mid-term and final exams of marketing in universities and professional institutions all over the world. The MCQs in marketing are set from the whole syllabus. MCQs generally test the knowledge of fundamental concepts, terms and the ability of students in application of such knowledge in interpreting practical situations. MCQs are tricky and cleverly designed to distract students to mark incorrect answers. The time given to answer MCQs are limited and students should have a thorough knowledge of the subject to select the correct answer within the restricted time. The best way to prepare yourself for MCQs is to know them in advance. The challenge for students is, they are required to study many subjects in addition to marketing in one semester. Therefore, not every student has the time to go through the whole syllabus and remember all the concepts. This book is written with the sole aim of helping students to get exams through and you will not regret the investment you make on this book.

Complementing Dibb and Simkin's established reputation in their field, this text presents a punchy overview of the leading 50 themes of marketing, each concisely summarized for revision purposes or quick-learning. While appealing primarily to students undertaking marketing exams, many practitioners will also find this 'glossary of current marketing' hard to resist. The title builds on the earlier works of Dibb and Simkin, whose Houghton Mifflin text, 'Marketing: Concepts and Strategies', is the current business school market leading text in the United Kingdom, while their Thomson Learning text, 'The Marketing Casebook: Cases and Concepts', has just been revised and is the most widely used marketing casebook. From understanding customers, branding and positioning, relationship marketing, social responsibility through to value-based marketing and one-to-one marketing, this book covers all the issues the modern marketer must address. The text itself is organized into short structured chapters, the Briefs, each including: * Core definitions * A bulleted key point overview * Thorough yet concise explanation of the concept and primary issues * Illustrative examples * A selection of examination style case, essay and applied questions * Recommended further
