

My Name Is Leon

Summer 1918. The First World War is drawing to a close when Léon Le Gall, a French teenager from Cherbourg who has dropped out of school and left home, falls in love with Louise Janvier. Both are severely wounded by German artillery fire, are separated, and believe each other to be dead. Briefly reunited two decades later, the two lovers are torn apart again by Louise's refusal to destroy Léon's marriage and by the German invasion of France. In occupied Paris during the Second World War, where Léon struggles against the abhorrent tasks imposed upon him by the SS, and the wilds of Africa, where Louise confronts the hardships of her primitive environment, they battle the vicissitudes of history and the passage of time for the survival of their love. From the award-winning author of MY NAME IS LEON, THE TRICK TO TIME and SUPPORTING CAST comes a childhood memoir set to become a classic: stinging, warm-hearted, and true. Kit de Waal grew up in a household of opposites and extremes. Her haphazard mother rarely cooked, forbade Christmas and birthdays, worked as a cleaner, nurse and childminder sometimes all at once and believed the world would end in 1975. Meanwhile, her father stuffed barrels full of goodies for his relatives in the Caribbean, cooked elaborate meals on a whim and splurged money they didn't have on cars, suits and shoes fit for a prince. Both of her parents were waiting for paradise. It never came. Caught between three worlds, Irish, Caribbean and British in 1960s Birmingham, Kit and her brothers and sisters knew all the words to the best songs, caught sticklebacks in jam jars and braved hunger and hellfire until they could all escape. WITHOUT WARNING AND ONLY SOMETIMES is a story of an extraordinary childhood and how a girl who grew Jake. They have gone to live with Maureen, who has fuzzy red hair like a halo, and a belly like Father Christmas. But the adults are speaking in low voices and wearing Pretend faces. They are threatening to give Jake to strangers. As Leon struggles to cope with his anger, certain things can still make him smile - like chocolate bars, riding his bike fast downhill, burying his hands deep in the soil, hanging out with Tufty (who reminds him of his dad), and stealing enough coins so that one day he can rescue Jake and his mum...

Chef Harry Wells thinks he is retired from his former life doing special ops for the Defense Department. But when he attempts to cater a dinner on Deer Island in the St. Lawrence River, he finds himself caught up in the murder of an FBI agent as well as a narcotics investigation involving a Chinese triad, Russian organized crime and some people from Yale University's Skull and Bones Society. He is pulled into the FBI's operation and gets partnered with a G-man named Ronnie Malcolm. Malcolm is reluctant to work with a civilian but he comes to value the training and hard learned skills of a man such as Harry Wells. Harry's boss and restaurant owner, Agathe Foutopolis, a Greek immigrant, does not share her chef's enthusiasm for the cloak and dagger life, but she soon finds that Harry's problems are becoming hers as someone threatens to destroy her business and all she has worked for. The action in this book runs throughout and will keep the reader guessing with every twist and turn.

Seventeen-year-old Dinah needs to leave her home, the weird commune where she grew up. She needs a whole new identity, starting with how she looks, starting with shaving off her hair, her 'crowning glory'. She has to do it quickly, because she has to go now. Dinah was going to go alone and hitch a ride down south. Except, she ends up being persuaded to illegally drive a VW campervan for hundreds of miles, accompanied by a grumpy man with one leg. This wasn't the plan. But while she's driving, Dinah will be forced to confront everything that led her here, everything that will finally show her which direction to turn... In her first YA novel, Costa-shortlisted author Kit de Waal responds to the classic Moby Dick with entirely new characters, a VW campervan, and by tearing the power away from obsessive Captain Ahab and giving it to a teenage girl who's determined to find a new life, far away from her unconventional upbringing. "An emotionally charged book" - Daily Mail "Fresh and defiantly original ... what a beautiful book" - Sarah Moore Fitzgerald "Vengeance is sought by many. Forgiveness found by few" Fifteen years ago on the Fourth of July, Leon Anthony stared into the trusted eyes of his beloved father, then up at the fireworks and to the stars. His father's words echoed in his mind: "Forgive him, my son." As Leon stood over his father's lifeless body, his hands became little fists, still wet, dripping with his father's blood. The blurred image of a tattoo remained branded into his consciousness, the tattoo of the man who had murdered his father in cold blood. Now a grown man, Leon returns to Miami with a need for revenge burning deep in his soul. He vows to find his father's killer and finally eradicate years of guilt and pain. But retribution must take a backseat as Leon finds himself torn between the love of two women and forced to face his mother's painful secret. Leon learns that within the hurt, innocence can be lost and the man along with it. To survive, he must prove himself worthy of the love of a woman and, ultimately, the love of his father. But when one knocks upon the door of the past, there is always the chance that someone will answer.

From his less than auspicious New York City formative years, William Francis Flower thoughts have been obsessed with cravings for financial success. By and large a timid, yet strong-willed, ambitious pragmatist; he could not settle for anything less than all he deserved. A point in time converge with circumstances dictate his future journey. His amazing expedition is highlighted by acquiring a good deal of money and finding true love in the strangest of places. His spectacular life's journey carries this young man from his meek beginnings in an insignificant New York City walk-up apartment to the unfettered carnival of greed and ambition, Wall Street. From these captivating caverns to the unforgiving jungles of the Kingdom of Thailand; this is the account of his episodic passage from the impoverished years of his early life to the independence wealth has provided; from frenzy to serenity and nigh on back again. Joseph Stefano, a highly successful Manhattan restaurateur, entrepreneur and philanthropist discovered illuminating information while incarcerated in a minimum security prison, these facts proved to be 'revealing' at the very least. Dr. Barton Barrick, computer software engineer extraordinaire, life has been plagued by unintentional and unprovoked disappointments. His frustrating career turns as he finds true love where he least expects it. It appears his success cards have finally turned. Archibald Crawford is a world renowned insurance ransom investigator. Plainly depleted of spirit, he seeks to alter the path of his presently dismal existence. Ever dream of having enough money to last a lifetime? Fantasies become realities for these characters? You'll turn the pages quickly as you learn how the lives of these bold men twist and turn. Read on as they tumble and stumble upon exhilarating
