TIPS - A Guidebook for Teaching Excellence in ESL - is a necessary tool for teaching and learning English as a Second Language. The book is a sampler containing useful information regarding the history of the English language, the correlation between language and culture, and provides a solid framework with which to create meaningful contexts in the teaching and learning of correct grammar, vocabulary, reading, writing, and literature at various levels of English proficiency. The major sections of the book start with TIPS and practical information addressed to the ESL teachers (and students), and the main purpose is to help instructors deliver interesting, productive, and effective content in the classroom. The author reveals the need for teachers to elevate the students' motivation by positioning the learning as a discovery process. They become more and more eager to find out about the how's and why's of the development of the language. The book collects practical information on a variety of topics and the research behind them in an easy-to-use format.

This book is a practical guide to personal and business negotiations. It is unique in going beyond the bargaining phase of negotiation to cover the entire process from your decision to negotiate through an evaluation of your negotiation performance. Also included are tools such as a negotiation planner, "decision trees" for calculating negotiation alternatives, psychological tools for increasing negotiation power, and tools for assessing your negotiation style.

This instructor's edition of a vocabulary textbook for college students, who read at the fifth to eighth grade level, features 25 chapters and teaches 250 basic words. The first and third chapters in each unit contain word-part practices. The second and fourth chapters in each unit contain synonym-antonym practices. The book's last chapter in each unit contains an analogy practice, review, and test. Also included is an answer key, a section on dictionary use, and a word list. The student edition is identical to the instructor's edition except that answers are not provided. (CR)
